2012 Lamps of Wisdom

5 February, 2012 // Sunday 10:30am

The sutra says, "Anyone who offers lamp to the Buddha at a stupa, temple or Dharma hall may receive countless blessing."

Wisdom lamp carries the meaning of loving-kindness and compassion, giving of light and brightening the world. Relying on the Buddha light which shines everywhere, the wisdom lamp fills the world with warmth, blessing, brightness and harmony. When everyone offers a lamp, lamp after lamp radiates a mutual glow. Brightness appears from the mother earth and shines towards every sentient being. May the merit of this offering of wisdom lamp lights up the wisdom lamp in my heart.

Lamps for offering to the Buddha will be available at this temple for anyone who wishes to accumulate merits. In every first Sunday morning of the month, the temple will hold a Wisdom Lamp Disaster Eradicating Dharma service. By the merit of this lamp offering and Dharma service, may all devotees and their families enjoy peace and harmony, may all their wishes be fulfilled, may the society be prosperous and may the world be peaceful. We sincerely invite you to pay respect to the Buddha and enjoy the Dharma joy and reward.
